

Trumbull Times 9-11-08

TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

Slavery in Connecticut — Dan Cruson, Newtown historian and author, will explore the little-known history of slavery in Connecticut with a presentation on "The Slaves of Central Fairfield County," 7:30 p.m., Trumbull Historical Society, 1856 Huntington Tpke., Trumbull. Free and open to the public. Information: 377-6620.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17

Soundview Knitting Guild — monthly meeting, 7 p.m., Trumbull Library, 33 Quality St. Judie Ganser and Romy Ganser-Cascella, co-owners of a new Internet-based business, Heavenly Hues Yarn, heavenlyhuesyarn.com, will be the featured speakers. Membership renewals for the 2008-09 year will be accepted. Annual membership dues are $20. Meeting fees are $3 per meeting or $30 per year. Open to non-members. Information: Beth Bocchino: 926-8500.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18

Garbage Museum tour — Opening meeting of the fall season for the Women's Fellowship of Unity Hill United Church of Christ, 364 White Plains Road, Trumbull begins at 11 a.m. with a sandwich lunch and fellowship, and at noon, for a tour of the Garbage Museum in Stratford. Information or reservations: 374-8822.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 20

Responsible Dog Ownership Day — hosted by The Trap Falls Kennel Club, sponsored by American Kennel Club, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Old Mine Park (Rt. 25 & Rt. 111), Trumbull. The goal of this initiative is to educate prospective dog owners about breeds and their personalities, help current owners enhance their relationships with their pets; as well as the responsibilities of dog ownership. Free to the public and their pets (mixed breeds welcome). To learn more about RDOD nationwide activities and the requirements for the Canine Good Citizen Test, visit akc.org; for specific schedule in Trumbull, visit trapfalls.org.

Ham dinner — hosted by Christian Fellowship Club of